Dear Sir/Madam

RE: JC8360 Mr Caul Silford Grant.
REF: 00439/2005

Following Mr. Grant's application against the UK to the European Court of Human Rights for several violations of the Convention Rights, (copy enclosed) it sufficed both Downing Street and the Home Secretary directed Mr. Grant's complaints of False Imprisonment, Judicial Corruption, Breaches of Articles 6 and 7 of the Convention Rights, etc., to your attention as existing avenue (yet unexhausted) within the UK jurisdiction for putting right wholesale wrongs and Injustices of the Courts.

Till date I am concern that despite all the evidence of False Imprisonment, Abuse of Process confirmed in the Lord Chancellor's Department Letter of 02/03/2001, (copy enclosed) that as a public body set up to investigate suspected miscarriages of justice in England, Wales & Northern Ireland, you have not yet seen Exceptional Circumstances to warrant urgency in this matter.

If that is the case then it means clearly that Judicial Corruption, False Imprisonments and Ultra Virus Abuse of Power and Process is a common feature of the British Judicial System and is therefore a rampant norm in within the UK Judiciary. If the commission is to observe the highest standards of propriety, impartiality, integrity and objectivity, it really must take False Imprisonment matters seriously!

Yours
