

DAVID CAMERON MP

HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON SW1A 0AA

LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION

22nd December 2005

Mr Balogun
25 Swinford Gardens
Barrington Road
London
SW9 7LA

Dear Mr Balogun,

Thank you so much for writing to David Cameron – he's asked me to thank you and to say that he appreciated what you had to say enormously.

We're grateful to you for bringing this matter to our attention – and I know that David Cameron will be sorry to hear of the difficulties you're having. However, as you may know, there is a convention in the House of Commons that stops an MP from acting on behalf of another MP's constituent, so, as a result I am afraid David Cameron is unable to intervene personally on your behalf. If you've not already done so, you may wish to ask your local MP for assistance.

Please let me assure you that the Conservative Party is committed to standing up for the most vulnerable in society and, while Mr Cameron can't offer any individual assistance, I can assure you that he does take on board the wider issues raised by your case.

Thank you again for taking the trouble to write.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Philps
Office of the Leader of the Opposition

Utter Nonsense and immoral