Your Case

Thank you for your letter.

I am sorry about the problems you have been having. Unfortunately, because I am not your local MP, I am not the right elected representative for you to go to. By Parliamentary convention, people are asked to contact first the Member of Parliament for the constituency in which they live if their problem concerns a parliamentary matter.

In your case, you should address your concerns to Lyn Brown, MP for West Ham. I have therefore taken the liberty of copying the papers to her. Letters should be addressed to Lyn Brown MP, House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA. Her office can be reached by telephone on 020 7219 6999 or 020 7219 3000. I am very sorry that I am not able to help and I do hope that a satisfactory conclusion can be reached. I am sure that Lyn Brown's office will be in touch shortly.

I hope that this has been of help. I wish you luck.

Yours sincerely

Simon Hughes
